

Writing levels

Level 1B - 'At National Standard' for Year 1 children - 40 weeks at school

Level 1P - 'At National Standard' for Year 2 children - 80 weeks at school

Level 1A - 'At National Standard' for Year 2 children -80 weeks at school

6-8 of
I was sad.
~~We~~ When my cat died from a car.
And I tried to ^{yell} yell ^{out} out to him
"look out you silly
gas. you ^{will} well pay for this."
Good start. What happened next?
We had a ^{funeral} funeral and he was ^{very} very flat.
We ^{buried} buried him in ~~the~~ the dirt ~~at~~ at Wellington ^{He} It was Wellton like a Greedy cat ^{because he was a} ~~greedy~~ greedy cat and ^{at} ~~at~~ of.
the fur came off.
the fur came off.

Level 2 - 'Above National Standard' for Year 2 children -80 weeks at school

* Wednesday 28 March 2001 *

My Grandma always tells me of for not having good enough table manners. She's got all these ^{serviette} servietts and ^{serviette} serviet rings. Ma and my Grandma, and Grandad all have our own ^{serviette} servietts and ^{serviette} serviet rings. One, has Grandads name ingraved ont it. My Grand -parents have a lot of butter knives and when I say a lot I mean a lot. They got them all for Wedding presents. They were in ^{fashion} fashion then.
When ever I go there I always ^{serviette}
tell myself table manners, ^{serviette} servietts ^{serviette} serviet rings Gee What next.

From <https://e-asttle.tki.org.nz>

NB: For children at school longer than the 40 weeks (year 1) and 80 weeks (year 2s), the standards alter accordingly.

